Netball Tournament

Well done to all the girls who played in the first round of the netball league tournament on Thursday night at CVC. Everyone tried very hard and I felt the final scores were not a true reflection of the good quality netball the girls are now starting to play. We now look forward to the next round in the New Year...! Happy Netballing!

Katie Kendall

Football

Caldecote played a match against Haslingfield last week. Everyone played really well, and we won 3-2. The goals were scored by Oliver Eastgate (2) and Jamie Johnson (1). Man of the match was Marcus Jacklin.

Cambridge Evening News

We have done incredibly well in the 'Cambridge Evening News' Christmas card competition. One of our pupils, Charlotte Schultz-Wade, was one of the winners. Well done, Charlotte!

We also were awarded the following:

Runners up

Rebecca Watts

Holly Prinsep

Highly Commended

Libby Swain

Alicja Emmans

Christmas Production Tickets

Please look out for ticket request forms for this years Christmas productions coming to your inbox soon.

The KS1 (Reception, Year 1 and Year 2) form will be sent out on Monday, 1st December. As usual tickets will be limited to a total of 2 per family on a first come, first served basis. You may request additional tickets and these will be allocated if any are available for the performance of your choice. (Please be aware that numbers are limited by fire safety regulations).

KS2 Choir Carol Singing

The KS2 Choir will be singing carols in the playground on Friday 5th December from 3pm onwards. Come along and get in the Christmas spirit! We will be collecting towards the PTA Christmas Fair.

Times Book for Schools

We are registering for The Times/Sunday
Times Books for Schools promotion.

If you have either/both of these papers can you please look out for the vouchers which will be printed in January 2009 and send them into school? Many thanks.
